

DR. BARRETT TO MAKE VISIT TO WEST POINT

Will Address American Legion and Auxiliary Tomorrow Evening in Theater.

WEST POINT, VA., May 14.—The Community League met on Monday and carried out the program along the lines of the "Community Life Campaign," as called by Governor E. Lee Trinkle for April 23 to May 20. The meeting opened with the singing of "America" by the high school children. The call of the Governor was then read by the secretary, A. S. Evans. Many topics were highly treated in a very impressive manner. "Give Them a Place to Play," meaning the children, D. N. Sutton addressed the league on "Citizenship," instructing and interesting his hearers. Mrs. Thomas P. Bailey gave a questionnaire of some posts of a town. These questions were responded to by those present and written on the blackboard. A recipe was then given for developing community spirit.

Mrs. A. J. Crane, of Washington, and Mrs. James H. Eastwood, of New York, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Eastwood, who, for about ten days, have had a most delightful visit. While here they have greatly enjoyed motorizing all around in this section from Fredericksburg to Gloucester Point, left by car for Richmond, where they are met by Mrs. Upon of Blackstone in her car, and taken to her home for a visit.

Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, will address the American Legion and the legion auxiliary here next Monday evening in the Wonderland Theater. Mrs. Walter Allen, Richmond, district chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary, will also be here and take part in the meeting.

Mrs. George W. Richardson will entertain Dr. Barrett while in town and Mrs. P. H. Thrift will entertain Mrs. Allen.

West Point had the pleasure and privilege of listening to Besie Farren Madson, returned missionary from India, in the Methodist Church Sunday and Monday evenings. She also spoke in the schools on Monday. She is now on a furlough in this country, as is also her husband and daughter.

On Monday evening the Women's Society of the Baptist Church met monthly session in the auditorium of the church. The Girls' Auxiliaries, the Royal Ambassadors and the Sunbeam Band conducted the program. Miss Nannie West, of Richmond, who has the care of the House of Happiness, made an address before the society.

Leaves for Florida.

Benjamin P. Richardson, son of Dr. and Mrs. George W. Richardson, chief machinist of motor boat, "Nowhere," left Baltimore the first of the week for Tampa, Florida.

Dr. Alfred Baugh, of Richmond, spent Wednesday in town visiting his many grandchildren and greeting old friends, en route from a two weeks' visit to his three sons in Baltimore.

J. L. Welford Owens, his daughter, Mrs. A. Julian Hatch, and son Otto Evans left Wednesday morning for Boston, en route in their car to go spending a week.

Miss Harriett Pitcher, who is training in Richmond to be a nurse, spent some time in the county at her home, and last week in West Point with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Montague Pitcher.

Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Fraser will make their home in Kinston, Williamston, as his term is finished at the Union Theological Seminary. He has had charge of the Trinity Union Chapel about five miles above West Point for the past year.

Mr. R. Turner has returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Kress, at Virginia Beach, and reports the arrival of a grandson, named Beauregard Turner Kress.

Marrages Celebrated.

The marriage of Leslie Saunders, of New York, and Mrs. John C. Marshall, daughter of W. S. Marshall, Passengers Ferry, was the first celebrated in Tidewater Union Chapel. Rev. George French, pastor of Christ Episcopal Church, Kipton, Williamston, officiated. The young couple will make their home in Newport News, where Mr. Saunders is in business.

A few more marriages were announced as follows:

OH, VICTORIA! STAYS AGAIN!

of Louisburg, N. C., were guests at the home of E. P. Massenburg last week.

Mrs. L. G. Warren returned home Friday after a ten days' visit at the home of Mrs. Allie Jones, Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Duncan and children of Richmond, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Yancey.

Misses Elsie, Mary, and Nora Mae Holmes were weekend guests of Miss Annie Isle Tucker.

Mrs. Lillian Hayman of Danville, spent last week-end with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Tucker.

Mrs. Annie L. Tucker, of the State Normal School, was at home with parents this past week.

Mrs. T. W. Moore, of Richmond, with her husband, who is in the Memorial Hospital there,

Mr. and Mrs. Pulley and Mrs. Goodrich, of Krest, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. White last Sunday.

W. H. Crowder spent last weekend in Richmond on business.

A number of boys and girls of the younger set enjoyed a ball ride to Smith's Ferry last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Mathews, of Kendbridge, were guests at the home of Dr. Lila Fox Tuesday.

H. W. Day and Dorothy Colver, of Richmond, were weekend guests of H. W. Schrell and family.

Miss Lucy Davis, of Schrell, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Frances Schrell.

Miss Christie Harris is spending this week with relatives in Kendbridge.

Miss Elizabeth Webb, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Stipe.

B. W. Schrell, Jr., of Lawrenceville, was the guest of parents here last Sunday.

B. W. Schrell spent last weekend at home with his family, returning to Richmond Sunday for treatment under Dr. F. G. Pease.

The Junior Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met in the arcade roll room Saturday at 5 o'clock.

Miss Blanche Matthews, of near Lawrenceville, returned home Wednesday after spending two weeks with relatives and Miss A. R. Keeton.

Mrs. G. Smith Walter of Onancock, Va., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Carter.

Mrs. E. G. Peoples entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club this week.

HARRISONBURG NORMAL

Special to The Times-Dispatch

HARRISONBURG, VA., May 13.—

The spring music festival arranged by the Harrisonburg Music Lovers' Club culminated last Tuesday night with a concert by Alberto Solvi, the celebrated harpist. The entertainment as well as other entertainments of the festival was largely attended by the State Normal School here.

The Normal School Glee Club sang on the program Monday night and sang two numbers, "Dawn's Awakening" (Grieg), and "Song of Spring" (Husch).

Ernest Cosby, of Richmond, president of the Virginia Music Teachers' State Association, was present for the festival and also addressed students at the State Normal School, Monday, at assembly.

The junior class was entertained Monday evening at an outdoor supper by faculty members of the class; H. A. Converse is the "honorary member." Miss Margaret V. Hoffman is the "big sister," and little Miss Daisy May Gifford is the "class mascot."

May Day was celebrated in the open-air auditorium Friday afternoon.

Miss Una Lewis, of Jamaica, was the May Queen.

Others, including resident in Harrisonburg, were members of the student club, "Le Gende Francais," Friday afternoon to attend the May Day, and afterwards at a French dinner.

Miss Ella Graham, the Presbyterian missionary just returned from Korea, spoke before the students at assembly Thursday morning.

Misses Alberta and Clotilde Roden of Greenwood, Albemarle County, went home Wednesday to be present at the homecoming celebration which was accorded Lady Astor and her party.

LOUISA

Special to The Times-Dispatch

LOUISA, VA., May 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Eminent Cottrell and their little daughter Anne, of Richmond, spent the weekend in Louisa with Mrs. Cottrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. McBlane.

Miss Agnes Serrivener, of St. Louis, paid a visit last week to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lewis.

Mrs. Joseph Willis has returned from East Orange, N. J., much improved in health.

Judge Browning, of Grange, is holding his term of May court in Louisa this week.

Mrs. F. W. Sims entertained last Friday in honor of Mrs. D. N. Walker.

Governor William Cameron has returned from his annual visit to Florida to spend the summer in Louisa with Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron.

Mrs. W. M. Perkins and Mrs. Ridgely visited Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mason in Gordonsville last week.

Miss Lula Compton, daughter of Rev. R. A. Compton, who was pastor of the Methodist church here three years ago, was the recent guest of Mrs. Walter Chiles.

The Louise United Daughters of Confederacy Chapter realized quite a nice sum from the sale of refreshments on court Monday.

Miss Marcie Francesco has resigned her position with the Louisa Hardware Company and accepted one with the Michie Company, in Charlottesville.

Mrs. D. D. Welts and children, of Louisa, spent some time recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardin Money, of New York, who are spending their honeymoon here, entertained at dinner at the Greentree Inn Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McElroy Jr., of New York, another bridal couple, before their departure for Atlantic City.

Henry G. Quarles, of Milwaukee, engaged a number of friends at a dinner party at the Mountain Club this week, and others entertaining there have been George Allen, of New York, and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Kuhn.

Mrs. Walter G. Martland, of Pittsburgh, arrived this week for a prolonged stay with Mrs. Charles Dabinger.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Macbeth, of Pittsburgh, are also here for several weeks.

NEARLY ALL COTTAGES TAKEN AT OLD WHITE

(Continued from Page 1)

country place near White Sulphur, is here for a short stay.

Mrs. Edward W. Wickham has returned from a fortnight at the Plaza, in New York, and will remain through the summer.

Welltons Give Luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wellton gave a large luncheon at The Casino, and

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Macbeth, of Pittsburgh, are also here for several weeks.

Virginia

Historical Pageant

—May 22-28—

THE KAUFMANN STORE

Headquarters for

PERIOD MILLINERY

Sport & Morning Frocks

THESE ARE most important of all! Plain Crepe de Chines and Canton Crepes, Striped Tub Silks and Figured Crepe de Chines, Knitted Frocks, charmingly simple; Dresses in unusual styles, a host of them all quite plain in character, $19.75 to $59.50.

Afternoon Frocks

FOR AFTERNOON occasions here are Frocks elaborately fashioned or daringly simple, Crepe Roma, Georgette, and Canton Crepe, in dark shades, or in the brightest Summer colors. Wonderful styles; models for all tastes, $35.00 to $95.00.

THE KAUFMANN MILLINERY SHOP is prepared to take care of orders for Hats needed during "Pageant Week," May 22 to 28. Whatever style you may have in mind, for any period, our expert designers will carry out your ideas fully—or, if you want suggestions, do not hesitate to call upon them.

Millinery Salon,
Main Floor

Gorgeous Dinner Dresses

THEIR ALLURING pastel shades are no less attractive than the exquisite materials and styles of our Dinner Dresses. Chiffons, Canton Crepes and Lace are shown mostly. Combinations of Lace and Chiffon are also several models. Priced from $50.00 to $150.00.

Party Dresses

SO CHARMING in style, and such a myriad of brilliant colors, our groups of Party Frocks embrace most all the season's favored models. Radium Silks, Chiffon and Lace, Combinations, Bouffant skirts, tight bodices, Many styles. $25.00 to $75.00.

Pageant Week Events

call for many new costumes for Milady, and, with this thought in mind, we have seen to it that our Salons are more than complete.

The Kaufmann Specialty Shop for Children

FROM BABYHOOD to flapper-age, girls (and boys, too) just love to come to Kaufmann's for their clothes. And why not? When their dear mothers were children they shopped at Kaufmann's also. Mothers, bring in your kiddies, now. Kaufmann's Children's Shop is joyfully filled with Summer wearables.

Specialty Shop Service Spells Sure Satisfaction

To-Morrow is Dr. Kahler's Visiting Day~
To All Who Want Foot Comfort

This is an unusual opportunity to have your feet examined entirely without charge.

A member of Dr. Kahler's staff will be here to meet you. If you have tired, aching feet, weak arches, or any other form of foot trouble, however mild or severe, do not miss this chance.

Come to Our Store To-Morrow

Have your feet examined without charge by a specialist whose advice has benefited thousands of men and women.

Dr. Kahler Shoes

